

Our Policies

- We kindly request a 24-hour notice for any cancellations.
- If this notice is not provided, a fee of 50% of the scheduled services will be charged and applied to your next appointment.
- For any chemical services a consultation is required before booking. If you have not had a consultation and such a service is scheduled, a stylist will reach out to reschedule your appointment for a consultation.

Our Satisfaction Guarantee

Please share any concerns or dissatisfaction regarding your service before leaving your appointment, so we can address any necessary corrections. Note that the service charge is nonrefundable. A correction service will be arranged at no additional cost.

Please contact us for further details or exceptions and have a wonderful day!

